Candidates For School Boards Are Announced

INCUMBENTS WILL RUN IN MOST OF DISTRICTS, REPORT

It will be a school board election without any contests next month—unless some new candidates make announcements during the next few days, it was revealed today.

Incumbents in most cases will permit their names to be placed on the ballots, although in some cases it took persistent urging on the part of friends to induce them to offer their services for another term.

In Alta Loma, Arthur Allen will be a new candidate. Emory Barkow, whose term is expiring, declined to run again due to the fact that his business takes him out of the district.

Frank K. Nichols, president of the Upland board of education, consented today to become a candidate.

Don E. Palmer, Upland, and J. E. Bailie, Fontana, incumbents, will be candidates for reelection as members of the Chaffey board of education.

In the Cucamonga school district, no candidate has filed and Mrs. Mildred Bonillas, whose term expires, said today she was undecided whether she would permit her name to be used in the election.

Hobart Alter's term in Ontario expires.

Mr. Allen of Alta Loma is the only new name so far injected into the school board election reports. When it was learned from Mr. Barkow that he would not be a candidate, Mr. Allen was approached.

The election will be held June 2. Elected will be two members of the Chaffey board and one member in each of the elementary school districts.

Upland Scouts To Ride in Claremont Youth-Day Parade

Eight Upland Girl Scouts, including Brownies, Scouts and Mariners, will ride in the J. J. Atwood company float in the Youth parade in Claremont tomorrow. Featured in the parade is the Sheriff's boys band of Los Angeles.

The local store, being headquarters for Girl Scout uniforms and supplies for the Chaffey and Claremont district, was asked to contribute to the youth day program at Claremont. The float will be decorated with pepper boughs and Scout banners and will show Scouts participating in various activities.

The parade is to start shortly after 1 p.m. at First street and College avenue in Claremont and will conclude at the Greek theatre on the Pomona college campus, where the band will give a concert at 3 p.m.

Meeting of Foreign Policy Group Will Be Held on Monday

Meeting of the Foreign Policy group of the Pomona Valley League of Women Voters will be held next Monday, it was announced today by the chairman, Mrs. Alfred R. Kipp of San Antonio Heights.

The meeting will be held at 2:30 in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Allen Carter, 440 West Eleventh street, Claremont, and the program will include a round table discussion of U. S. neutrality.

Mrs. Philip White of Upland, Miss Kneeland and Mrs. Willard Lyons, both of Claremont, and Mrs. Kipp will present the Pitman, Nye, Ludlow and Thomas proposals, with general discussion by the group.

Three Acres Burned Over in Brush Fire

Three acres of brush, owned by the San Antonio Water company, and located on Thirteenth street, east of Campus avenue, were burned over this morning. Upland fire department was called to the blaze, which was put out after an hour's work.

It's Mother's Day Sunday, and Many Will Be Honored

Mothers in Upland will be paid special honor Sunday as annual Mother's day is observed in various ways.

Mother, the importance of her place in the life of the family, the community and the nation; the influence of a Christian home, and kindred topics will be discussed during the services in the various churches in the city.

Family gatherings also will mark the day and many a mother wil be gladdened by the receipt of flowers, messages and other gifts from members of their families nearby and far away.

WALLS FOR FINAL CHAFFEY UNIT UP

Pouring Completed on New Addition to South Building

Pouring of the concrete walls on the final unit of the new south building at Chaffey high school was completed this week. The addition increases the classroom space by 14 rooms, and also furnishes a large study hall. The part of the building completed for school use last fall added 18 classrooms.

The new unit is the last building to be erected under the present improvement plans for a greater Chaffey, and when completed will bring to a close a large building program which has been in progress for a number of years.

Departments to be benefited by the new unit, which will be completed sometime during the 1939-40 school year, include the art department, the journalism department, and mathematics and science departments.

Entire third floor of the new unit will be utilized by the art department, now housed temporarily in the home economics rooms. Second floor will be used by the journalism classes where in addition to classrooms will be a "city" room and a "morgue". First and main floor will include classrooms, study hall, a small office, and a seminar room.

Although no definite plans are prepared or approved, projected additions include provision for the home-making departments and for the shops.

SPECIAL SALES UNDER WAY HERE

Furniture Co. in First Anniversary—Other Stores Are Featuring Items

Combining anniversaries, sales, a one-cent sale, a bargain sale and special offerings concerning Mother's day and straw hat day, five Upland concerns are featuring special prices.

The Upland Furniture Co., under the ownership of Paul G. Hottel, is starting its first anniversary sale, store-wide reductions being offered. The store, widely known for its high quality merchandise, is offering dining, bedroom and living room suites, lamps and other items at prices that are reported to be extremely low. Mr. and Mrs. Hottel came to Upland last year, having purchased the store from the late J. E. Kinney.

A unique one-cent sale of shoes is being advertised by Goodban's Brownbilt shoe store. This sale is in effect until Tuesday night.

The J. J. Atwood Co. and John E. Engle Men's store are also conducting special sales, many popular items being featured.

Saturday is "straw hat" day. Felt hats will be outdated after tonight, it is reported.

Miss Lillian Harnish of the Harnish Dry Goods Co. is conducting an anniversary sale, many bargains being offered throughout the store. The sale closes Saturday.

FOOTHILL BRIDGE WILL BE EXTENDED AS CONTRACT LET

Span Over Cucamonga Wash East of Upland Will Cost $12,619

Extension of the present Foothill boulevard bridge over Cucamonga wash, east of Upland, will begin soon, it was reported today after award of a $12,619 contract for the work to J. E. Hancock, Ltd., of Pasadena, by the state department of public works.

The present span was rendered inadequate by the flood of March, 1938, according to E. Q. Sullivan, district state highway engineer at San Bernardino. It will be extended by addition of two 30-foot spans of concrete slab construction.

During the last 10 years, the course of Cucamonga creek has fluctuated widely due to flood control operations in the foothills. Sullivan said. It was not until the 1938 flood that a permanent channel was established.

To carry the highway safely across the widened channel, the bridge extension will be necessary, it was stated. The existing span was erected by San Bernardino before the state took over maintenance of Foothill boulevard. A culvert and fill now supplement the bridge proper.

Sunkist Oranges Up 12 Cents in Average

Prices on Sunkist oranges were reported 12 cents higher this week over the preceding week. Directors of the California Fruit Growers Exchange heard reports Wednesday of the price and crop situation.

FIREWORKS FUND IS BEING SOUGHT

Individuals Asked to Aid in Presentation of July Fourth Event

If the annual fireworks display is going to be presented for the entertainment of thousands of persons on Red Hill July 4, many individuals will have to contribute to the fund, Leigh Thompson, fireworks committee chairman, said in an appeal today.

While various organizations have already offered to contribute, additional funds from the general public are necessary, according to the civic leader, who annually directs the pyrotechnics display.

Mr. Thompson expressed eagerness for the community to be able to present the fireworks. He appealed for the cooperation of the general public and within a few days he will make an intensive canvass. Persons may send their contributions to the chamber of commerce.

Ice Cream Made on Commercial Basis First Time Here

Ice cream is being manufactured in Upland today for the first time on a commercial basis.

William Beard, proprietor of the Allura Farm dairy, has installed ice cream manufacturing equipment and this is the first milk producing concern in the Chaffey district to enter this phase of the producer-to-consumer business.

To provide for the new equipment and at the same time to enlarge the capacity of his milk pasteurizing department, he has added to the buildings on his Grove avenue property. The milk room is lined with tile.

Hospital Group To Elect Officers at Meeting Monday

Election of officers and the making of annual reports will feature the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of San Antonio Community hospital to be held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the library of the hospital.

Mrs. Sanford Ballou, Auxiliary president, makes a special request that all officers and committee chairmen be ready to submit their reports.

They're Coming To Big Picnic From All Over

The all-states picnic on Euclid avenue May 20 isn't going to be just a Chaffey district affair.

By the hundreds, Southern Californians from many other cities will rally under the shade of the pepper trees along one mile of Euclid avenue parkway, according to the alert Sam Maxcy, secretary of the Ontario chamber of commerce.

Every mail is bringing to his office letters from various state societies in the southland. After reading each letter, the chamber secretary adds several more figures to the anticipated number of persons attending.

ALMOST OVERWHELMED

"By next year we had hoped to have a picnic table on Euclid extending from California boulevard to Foothill boulevard, but if this keeps up we will need one that long this year," he declared, trying to emphasize that he was being conservative.

"Frankly, I don't know how many people are going to be here, but we're going to have plenty."

Persons attending are to bring their own picnic lunch and table equipment. The Ontario chamber of commerce will provide free orange juice, milk, cream and coffee. William Atchley, a former Texan, has offered to supply the Lone Star section with honey.

ORDER OF PICNICKING

In alphabetical order, by states from which they came, persons will assemble on the parkway, Alabamans, the first of the "A's", will find their place near the Ontario business district, with other state groups extending northward.

Mrs. George Cassell, who is president of the Wyoming State society, is one of the Uplanders assisting with the preliminary arrangements. Upland chamber of commerce and other local groups are also aiding with the plans.

E. E. Pember Is In Grave Condition at Community Hospital

E. E. Pember of 117 West Arrow highway is critically ill at San Antonio Community hospital, with little change being noted in his condition since he submitted to an operation Thursday morning. He was taken to the hospital Tuesday after suffering a sudden attack of illness.

His son, Cecil Pember of Oletha, Kan., was expected to arrive late this afternoon by airplane, and a daughter, Mrs. Marie Ogg of Topeka, Kan., will arrive by train tomorrow.

During the comparatively short time Mr. Pember has resided in Upland he has won numerous friends and many are expressing regret over his serious illness.

Divorce and Its Attendant Evils Will Be Discussed

Divorce and its attendant evils—broken homes, unwanted children, lowered social standards—will be the topic of Mrs. Gertrude Hasbrouck when she completes her series of free morning talks on marriage problems in the Chaffey junior college auditorium Monday morning, 9:30 o'clock.

During the past nine weeks, Mrs. Hasbrouck has presented three series of lectures on sex character education, the adolescent child and marriage. She speaks under auspices of the Chaffey People's college and the Ontario Council, Parent-Teacher associations.

Snobs Among Hobos? Sure!

Who are the aristocrats of the transients? Who are the social snobs among the single men who drift to California in winter and back east again in summer?

Miss Ella B. Watland, Red Cross field representative in Upland this week, knows.

"My, how the ex-service men, who are eligible for twenty-five cent Red Cross grocery orders in towns which they visit, lord it over the other transients who are not so fortunate," she says.

"They are the social upper crust among the floating population in the United States," she remarked.

Administered locally through Mrs. Adelaide Plum in the Upland chamber of commerce building, these grocery orders are available to ex-service men who have with them their discharge papers. On her visit to Upland this week, Miss Watland was interested to see the complete records kept by Mrs. Plum of every grocery order issued from the Upland office since 1933.

What do the men buy with the twenty-five cents which the Red Cross gives them? Hjalmar Anderson reports that at his store the preference is usually for bread, a little hamburger, nickle's worth of potatoes and onions, and possibly coffee.

PROSPERITY AHEAD IS VIEW OF ALLEE

Uplander Back From Annual Trip East Tells of Improved Spirit

One of the annual travelers to the midwest is Steve D. Allee. He has just returned with this terse report on agricultural and economic conditions:

"Prospects for the farmers are better than for several years. Morale among the people is very definitely improved over a year ago. The farms have stock and chickens and there are really signs of prosperity. Retail business is better."

While not claiming to be any expert observer on the general subject of national affairs, Mr. Allee is in a position to know something about conditions because of his regular trips to California, Mo., to visit his aged mother, Mrs. Cornelia Allee. His brother is in the clothing business there and the Uplander contacts farmers and other people enroute.

Mr. Allee was accompanied by his wife. They were gone nearly a month, having returned late last week. They went east by train and at Detroit obtained delivery of a new car.

DAVE MARTIN TO LEAVE RED HILL CLUB ON JUNE 1

Popular Pro at Local Golf Course Accepts Post in Fresno

Dave Martin, widely known as an ace golfer and a popular "pro" at the Red Hill Country club, has resigned to accept a position with the Sunnyside Country club at Fresno. Mr. Martin, who has been with the local club for 2½ years, will begin his new duties June 1.

Coming as a surprise to directors of the club was Mr. Martin's resignation.

"We have given no thought to a successor," said William Batchelor, president of the club. "All we know is that Mr. Martin is leaving, we deeply regret it and I don't know when we will select someone to fill his place."

The Fresno club is reported to be one of the largest in San Joaquin valley.

Mr. Martin came to the local club from a large sporting goods store in Los Angeles. Throughout his golfing activities he has established an enviable record and his work as a "pro" has made him a popular favorite among local club members.

After winning the 1931 California state amateur championship and the Southern California amateur championship and playing in the British amateur tournament, Mr. Martin turned professional. In the British amateur he survived four rounds of play, eliminating Rex Crawley, British champion, in the first round.

Swan entertained members of the San Antonio Heights Community League at the Eighteenth street elementary school last night when she showed color films which she took at the San Francisco fair, at the Tournament of Roses and also shots of Van Ness Water Gardens, of fields of California poppies and some views of orange trees in bloom and with fruit.

Baby Convention, 'Open House' Draw Many to Hospital

Open house began at 2 p.m., members of the staff serving as guides for the many visitors.

JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS PLAN DAY OF GAMES

Field Day Tomorrow at Upland Junior High for 150 Athletes

One hundred and fifty Upland junior high school girls will participate in play-day tomorrow when team and individual contests will be run off, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning, with luncheon at noon in the school cafeteria and continuing with track events (relays and dashes) in the early afternoon.

Under the direction of Miss Dorothy Woodside, assisted by Misses Dorothy McAdams and Donnie Mahan of the junior high school faculty, inter-class competition will start with seventh, eighth and ninth grade teams competing against each other in volley ball, baseball, basketball and tennis (singles and doubles). With no girl playing on more than one team, it will be possible to run off the events simultaneously.

Besides the competition among the teams, there will be individual competition in broad jump, basketball throwing for accuracy and speed, baseball throwing for distance, reach and jump, and 50 and 75 yard dashes. Girls are not restricted in the number of these events they may enter.

Luncheon at noon in the cafeteria will be featured by a program of singing, piano music, dancing, a playlet and songs.

Five physical education majors from Chaffey junior college and five from Pomona college will assist. Through the courtesy of Miss Harriet Reeder of Chaffey and of Miss Esther Bristol of Pomona college the student referees were obtained.

MRS. GILLILAND IS NEW CLUB LEADER

Business and Professional Women Elect Officers and Hear Program

Annual election of officers, with Mrs. William Gilliland of Gilliland Gardens on East Foothill bouevard being named president, plans for club activities and a cleverly told and beautifully illustrated travelogue were the outstanding features of the dinner meeting held last evening in the Upland Woman's club house by the Upland Business and Professional Women's club.

Mrs. Gilliland was selected to succeed Mrs. Ernest Tweed Stone, who for the past two years has efficiently directed the affairs of the club. Presiding capably and graciously at the club meetings was only a part of the many phases of the club work that have received Mrs. Stone's attention during her two terms, in which she has received the hearty cooperation of all members of the club.

Mrs. Gilliland, a comparatively new member of the club, is an efficient business woman and her ability and enthusiasm for the club work indicate another sucessful year for the organization.

OTHER OFFICERS NAMED

Named to serve with Mrs. Gilliland are Mrs. Otis Cooper, first vice-president (re-elected); Mrs.

CONGRESS LIKELY TO ACT SOON ON GRANT OF FUNDS

Final decision is expected soon on whether or not the federal government will erect a $12,000,000 flood control project in San Antonio canyon. An appropriations committee in Congress has recommended the allocation of $406,000 to start the project.

Spurred on by news of this recommendation, many individuals and organizations this week sent telegrams protesting the project in a final attempt to get officials to abandon the plans as drawn at present.

LEGISLATORS CONTACTED

Upland chamber of commerce directors and other organizations have sent appeals to the California legislators asking them to lend their influence in getting the project abandoned.

What effect the concerted opposition will have is unknown. Congressman Harry R. Sheppard has assured the county board of supervisors that the appropriation will meet his opposition if that is the wish of the county officials.

The $406,000 sum for the local canyon project, however, is only a minor sum compared with the $28,000,000 in the sum recommended for appropriation. Whether Congressman Sheppard could get the San Antonio canyon project deleted from the total is reported to be problematical.

Even after the funds are appropriated, it may be possible to get the plans abandoned, according to reports—and the organized opposition against the project is likely to continue for many months.

Estimated cost of the project is $12,400,000. Why only $406,000 was included in the recommended appropriation is unknown.

Incidents on Trip To Greece Related At Lions' Meeting

Prof. Ellis Spackman, who, bored by a history professor years ago, determined to put zest and action into the classroom, injected many humorous incidents when he spoke at the meeting of the Upland Lions club in the Red Hill Country club house at noon yesterday. Mr. Spackman, who is history professor at San Bernardino Valley junior college, told of his last summer's trip to Greece, including a hike to the top of Mt. Olympus.

What he knew about the Greek language was very, very little, he said, explaining "that didn't bother us much even though we got off the train at the wrong place miles from our destination."

Accompanied by a friend, the two men viewed many sights of the historic nation, he said. Greece is only slightly larger in area than San Bernardino county, but the population there is 7,000,000 as compared with 190,000 in this county, he explained.

Dr. Earl L. Wenger, newly elected president, presided. R. Frank Lemon was program chairman.

Social Service Club To Hear Dr. Abbott And See Pictures

Dr. C. N. Abbott, president of the San Bernardino County Tuberculosis association, will be the speaker at the meeting of the San Bernardino County Social Service club Monday night. "Let My People Live", dealing with the problems of the colored people, and "Behind the Shadows", concerning Mexican people, will be shown.

Reservations for the meeting, to be held in "The Pit", San Bernardino, are to be made with Helen Post, Ontario S. R. A. office.

Five New Houses Being Erected on Archibald Avenue

Five new residences are being erected by Charles Revello, Cucamonga business man, at Archibald avenue and Eighth street.

Being erected for rental purposes, the new structures are on a site adjoining the Cucamonga school. They will be completed within 45 days.

He Gets Joy In Watching Orchard Heaters

W. C. Scheu Tells of History In Industry

His hat pulled down over his eyes—a chewed cigar in the corner of his mouth—a man sat in an old green painted rocking chair in a small shed on the south side of the Santa Fe tracks in Upland, benignly surveying a burning orchard heater with the same joy and complacency that a fisherman displays when he looks out over an expanse of water.

The man was no other than W. C. Scheu, orchard heater king of the world. In such a setting did that man who has made orchard-heater history grant an interview to an Upland News reporter. He must have been caught off guard, because he is known as a man who will not talk for reporters.

EXPERIMENTS TRIED

"What is that heater there, Mr. Scheu," your reporter asked, as fumes from the pot poured out the open door of the shed, and all but asphyxiated the eager journalist. Just then a pop from the close-up heater broke the calmness of the May afternoon. However, Mr. Scheu paid no attention to the minor explosion, so the interview proceded.

"Why, that's one of the improvements we're working on," he said. "You know we are never satisfied. We are always trying to find pots that give off less smoke and leave less residue. Look at those stacks we've been testing." He pointed to the array of stacks which cluttered the shed.

"We take the very worst oil we can find for testing pots," he said. "That is what you have to count on in a big freeze. And growers have no time to clean residue out of the pots. Maybe we'll have some news for you when we get this pot perfected."

Wiping some flecks of soot off his cheek, he turned reminiscent, and recalled: "In 1910 I brought the first pots with stacks to California. Then everybody laughed at the idea of needing pots that would hold more than a gallon of oil. All that was necessary was a little heat just before sunrise, they said.

FIRST BIG SALE

"In 1912 I made my first big sale of heaters to the Fruit Growers Supply Co., furnishing 300,000. These had bowls which would hold only two-and-a-half gallons. But I had one customer—Mr. Hampton of the Corona Lemon Co., who ordered five-gallon heaters, and he sold 80 per cent of his crop for $300,000.

"As a result, heaters holding seven to nine gallons were in demand after the 1913 freeze, and some of the 350,000 heaters I sold that year are still in use near

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

But now in Christ Jesus ye that once were far off are made nigh in the blood of Christ.—Ephesians 2:13.

The Flood Control Situation

In its issue last week the Claremont Courier discussed at some length the "current status of opposition and support of the San Antonio canyon flood control dam and debris basin."

We quote the Courier:

"Following unanimous approval of the project by the boards of supervisors of Los Angeles and San Bernardino counties recorded shortly after the 1938 flood, the San Bernardino group has been organized by Chairman C. E. Grier of Upland to oppose the dam because it is said that water rights will be endangered.

"This attitude is so foreign to fact as outlined repeatedly by Major Theodore Wyman, Jr., chief of army engineers, that some other reason for the antagonism must be impelling residents of west San Bernardino county to kill the project.

"Upland and Ontario are not endangered by flood waters from San Antonio canyon and would be more than willing to have the entire development withdrawn than have the proposed dam at the mouth of the canyon, where it would safely release water to the spreading grounds which conserve it for the Claremont and Pomona basins.

"The San Bernardino opposition is a real threat, because the policy of the army engineers in flood control projects has been to withdraw their support from work in which affected communities are not in accord. It will make no difference if actual money for the particular project is voted by congress because flood control funds are lumped in the engineers corps budget and there is no check whether it is used on developments for which it was voted.

"Another serious danger is that the opposition will delay the work until after Major Wyman leaves for his new post in Hawaii next fall. Wyman's interest and understanding of the danger of flood for this area have been vitally important in securing congressional approval. His successor would not be familiar with the situation and would be more willing to abandon a project in which communities apparently are not in agreement.

"Claremont city council has taken the first step to counteract the work of Supervisor Grier and this week voted to send representatives to other towns in the area to acquaint civic bodies with the serious situation. Expressions of support for the proposed flood control work will weigh heavily against the minority opinion of petition signers in Upland, many of whom have given their names blindly to a movement which is apparently instigated by a handful of selfish leaders."

Apparently the Courier does not realize extent of the opposition in this community to the suggested location of the proposed dam—and may not the attitude of Claremonters be regarded as "selfish" as well as that of Uplanders Each community is looking after what it considers the interests of the community at large. Some of the objections of Upland people were outlined in a statement by directors of the West End Consolidated Water Co., printed in The Upland News on Tuesday.

The matter of future expense to this community is one of vital importance—and there should be assurance from federal authorities in that regard.

Another objection to the proposed location of the dam is that if it were built there it would be a great detriment to San Antonio Heights, one of the finest residential sites in the Southland—if not ruin it for future development—and would place an ugly thing for many of the residents, whose homes would not be wiped out, to look upon henceforth.

There's Cash Value in Good Manners

Think about politeness in terms of sentiment if you want to, but cold facts show that courtesy pays well in terms of hard cash. This is the verdict of Charles B. Hathaway, writing in the current Rotarian magazine. He cites examples of substantial fortunes resulting directly from thoughtfulness and good manners.

Clement George McCullagh, now one of the dominant public figures in Canada, impressed fabulously rich Bill Wright by his courtesy when trying to sell him some securities. Other salesmen had shown little respect for his privacy and feelings; so, attracted first by a single courteous act, eventually the two formed a history-making partnership, combining McCullagh's ability and Wright's money.

Or consider the girl working in the safety-deposit department of a Detroit bank. A certain elderly gentleman came to the vault only three times a year to be served by the girl—yet when he died he left her $5,000 in recognition of her "unfailing courtesy".

Mr. Hathaway points to the examples of John Wanamaker and Marshall Field, the great merchants. It was the former who insisted that "the customer is always right," and in applying the principle to his stores made himself wealthy. Mr. Field, at the height of his success, would take time to tour his store, wait on customers, and hear their complaints. He profited greatly by applying courtesy to merchandising.

While commercialized manners are desirable, it is even more heartening to meet a person who is mannerly, not because he anticipates a profit from his acts, but just because he is mannerly. Outstanding in this way is the great Paderewski. As one of the world's greatest musicians, he could indulge in any rudeness and have it charged off to temperament. "But," the author points out, "his simple kindliness—manners, I call it—made him a national idol."

One corporation has a person who first interviews applicants for positions and reports on manners only. If one fails to pass the courtesy test, no amount of ability will earn him a place with the firm.

"I believe we have established the point," Mr. Hathaway concludes, "we need not be sanctimonious when we talk about manners, or approach the subject as a semi-religious, non-profit proposition; we can admit that it is a good thing because it has cash value."

Back in Illinois there has been introduced in the state legislature a bill prohibiting double features at the movies. Now there's an idea for Assemblyman Godfrey Andreas—most Californians would welcome such a law. But, of course we don't have to stay for the second feature if we don't want to.

Very Brief Interviews

ONE MAN'S MEAT

Harvey McMasters, Upland mail carrier, says, "All I know is that this is certainly fine weather for a mail carrier—not too hot, nor too cold, just right. No, I don't go for a walk on my day off. I sit or ride."

ANOTHER MAN'S POISON

"Louie," whose shoe shine stand is a familiar spot, says: "I don't like this weather. All these cloudy days certainly interfere with cleaning white shoes. Why, I would have a whole rack of white shoes if the sun were shining."

ALWAYS HAD "GLO" WEEK

"Mac" the Medicine Man (P. H. McQuillen) says: "This Glo week is nothing new for us. We've always served lots of orange and lemon juice. For years we get the best looking fruit we can find, display it in a prominent place, and when we find out we have strangers in the store, we serve them, free, a citrus drink. Then they ask, "where does this fine fruit grow?" Of course, we tell them 'right in our own district.' But the Glo campaign has made customers more conscious of orange drinks and more people order them."

BRIDES CHOOSE UPLAND

Mrs. E. A. Dart, who is in charge of the Upland Methodist church in management of wedding parties: "Brides like the church because of its three aisles and general architectural atmosphere. Many out-of-town bridal parties came here last year for the ceremonies—in fact, there were just as many parties from out-of-town as from Upland."

ALTA LOMA P.-T. A. IN FINAL SESSION

New President Presides With Plans Being Made and Address Enjoyed

With Mrs. Carroll C. Hamilton, the new president, presiding for the first time, the final meeting in this school year was held Tuesday afternoon by the Alta Loma Parent-Teacher association, an interesting address being heard and several business matters given attention.

PICNIC PLANNED

Plans were made for the annual school picnic, which always is enlarged to a community wide event. Friday, May 26, was selected as the time for the picnic, which will be held in Galvin park on Fourth street in Ontario, beginning with the dinner at 12:30 and continuing until 4 o'clock. The pupils, teachers, parents and other members of the families and all others in the community not connected with the school, will be invited to attend.

TO AID IN JUBILEE

The association is taking an active interest in the preparations for the Alta Loma Silver Jubilee to be held on June 17 and Mrs. Hamilton appointed Mrs. Claude McKee and Mrs. Arthur Allen to represent the P.-T. A. in the general Jubilee committee.

SPEAKER PRESENTED

Mrs. Milton Chapman of Ontario was presented as the guest speaker, her topic being "Art in the Home," a subject that she discussed in an exceptionally interesting way.

The correct placing of furniture in the homes, the relation of rugs and pictures to the furniture and details concerning proportion, spacing and color, all were discussed, with many beneficial suggestions being made.

Upon special request Mrs. Chapman also discussed flower arrangements, giving a number of suggestions concerning placing, color combinations, etc.

A pleasant tea hour concluded the meeting, the first grade mothers being hostesses, with Mrs. George Cherbak serving as chairman. The table from which the refreshments were served was attractively adorned with choice roses.

CHAFFEY FAIR TO BE MAJOR EVENT HERE NEXT WEEK

Brilliant Spectacle Is Being Planned in Annual Exposition

Barnyard extravaganza, with Leslie Standlea as master of ceremonies, model airplane meets, S. a Scout Jamboree, scientific demonstrations, stock judging, newest fashions displayed to the tune of a "Swing Revue," athletic, writing, spelling contests and dancing will fill the two days of the eighteenth annual Chaffey Junior fair May 19 and 20.

Formal opening at 12:35 next Friday will feature band music, flag raising ceremonies, pigeon release and the singing of 1,000 massed voices from the Ontario, Upland and Fontana junior high schools, Chaffey social living classes, Ontario Kiwanis club and the Chaffey faculty.

NOVELTY ACT SCHEDULED

"A Day at the Rancho" is the theme of the novelty entertainment on the athletic field which follows the livestock parade. This will include a horse and pony show, judging and a potato race on horseback and donkeys. Music will be furnished by a German band, crooners and Hill Billies.

Evening entertainment includes a science demonstration and open house at the junior college and a show on the athletic field by the Sea Scouts of Old Baldy council. At this time there will be seven 18 foot sharpies and one land ship brought onto the field for a demonstration of typical ceremonies and drills. This will include the use of the breeches buoy.

1000 YOUTHS PARADE

Arrangements for more than 1000 elementary school children to take part in the grand 'play day beginning Saturday morning are being made. During this part of the fair there will be games, stunts, archery tournaments, track meet, spelling and penmanship contests and dancing by the girls.

At 7:30 a.m., the high school aviation club, under Harold Wilson, sponsors a model airplane meet for both exhibition, speed and endurance models. Led by Ponce Espino and Carlos Tarin, the Californians, Mexican folk lore group from the People's college, will offer an hour of singing and dancing on the front terrace of the new auditorium preceding the Swing revue at 8:30.

MUSICIANS TO PLAY

This performance on the closing night of the fair will include a group of musical and novelty selections by the Chaffey theatre orchestra, directed by Murray Owen, and the showing of the most outstanding clothing made in the clothing classes during the year. This is under the general supervision of Miss Adda Middleton.

Most Northern City In World Reached By Line

BY FRANCIS R. LINE

An International Wagon-Lit (sleeping-train) is a place for adventure, interest and education Having arrived in Sweden after a quick journey across Denmark, I took a night train out of Stockholm toward the north.

My traveling companions were a Hungarian, who was Scandinavian agent for the Cleveland Tractor Co.; a young Swedish chap who acted as his interpreted, and a Swedish girl bound for the same destination as I was—Kiruna, in the north.

THREE-WAY SYSTEM

I wanted to talk to the girl, but we had no language in common. So we resorted to what might be called a system of international exchange. I put my message in English to the Hungarian, who was able to understand me. He relayed it in German to the young Swedish chap, who in turn converted it into good Swedish and passed it along to the girl. Her answer, in due time, came back by a reversal of this process. What changes took place during the complicated transmission I do not know.

All I can say is that, after the two men departed next morning (they were bound for central Sweden to sell snowplows) the girl and I made signs to each other and got along much better than with our multiple interpreters.

INTERESTING WONDERS

Each time that our train stopped there was revealed to me the interesting wonders of a northern land. The baggage trucks at the stations were huge sleds. Boys and girls of all ages—men as well—flocked about the train on skiis. All were bundled up in interesting and colorful clothes. The typical hat for the men was a high fur-like affair of Russian style. The air was filled with the steam from people's breaths. Every stop presented a kaleidoscope of new sights and wonders.

Most of central Sweden was heavily forested, with numerous lakes and rivers. The lakes, great areas of frozen white, looked eerie, with their one or two solitary ski tracks across them. The ice of the rivers was piled high with fresh-cut timber, awaiting the spring thaw and the timber drive. That will be an interesting time.

AT "POLAR CIRCLE"

As we continued northward, the forests rapidly became smaller and more sparse. The timber had dwindled to brush when the train suddenly slowed and the whistle sounded. There, on a vast field of snow, was planted a large white sign, printed in three languages with the words "Polar Circle". I was now on the only major railroad within the Arctic Circle. It is electrified from Boden to Narvik with power from Porjus dam, called Sweden's "Little Colorado".

Our train sped on. We entered the mountains and passed Lake Turnetrast, Sweden's finest, with its shores hugged close by white-fanged mountain peaks.

IT'S BREATH-TAKING

At the border, the train started its descent toward the Atlantic coast. Some Norwegian youngsters had left a window open. I went to close it. But it remained open the rest of the way—for below me, visible in the dusk of twilight, was the Narvik fjord. Lake Tornetrast had been breath-taking. But the sight of this fjord eclipsed everything. Here was open water from the Atlantic—soft blue and mystic in the dusk. Frigid white peaks, like dog teeth against the sky, were everywhere. Our train wound back and forth. Every view was different. I believe one's first sight of a Norwegian fjord should always be like this—approached from inland, without warning. It hits one between the eyes.

From Narvik, after I had stopped a day to outfit for colder weather, a coastal steamer carried me north to Tromso, where Amundsen, Nansen and other Arctic explorers outfitted their expeditions. On again the steamer went for another 15 hours and dropped me at 5 a. m. of a blizzardly morning at Hammerfest, Norway, farthest-north city in the world. Not a person was on the dock. Only crying sea gulls and cawing ravens were there to greet me. Through the storm I made my way by trial and error method to the "Grand Hotel". Not a soul was up. Walking in, I found in the office a large blackboard which listed the rooms which were filled and vacant. Choosing a vacant one, with a good view over the Atlantic, I went in and have been writing this article ever since. I hope, when the landlord finds me, he will not object.

Farm Bureau Picnic Scheduled Tomorrow At Fontana School

An all-day meeting of the San Bernardino County Farm Bureau and of the home department and parents of 4-H club members is scheduled for tomorrow at Fontana community church and elementary school auditorium.

Principal address will be given by F. F. Burtchette of the College of Business Administration, University of California at Los Angeles. Judging of 4-H club exhibits is scheduled before dinner. During the meal the boys band will play. An act by Bill Brown, magician, is to be followed by a musical program and dress parade by the women's home deportment. Games will be played at the conclusion of the afternoon.

"I am a woman of few words," announced the haughty mistress to the new maid. "If I beckon with my finger, that means 'Come!' "

"Suits me, mum," replied the girl. "I'm a woman of few words myself. If I shake me head, that means I ain't comin'."

BEAUTY, COLOR TO BE PLAY FEATURE

"As You Like It" Cast Will Present Spectacular Performance

Songs, dances, special music effects and beautiful costumes and scenery will highlight the performance of "As You Like It," which Chaffey Little theatre students will present tonight in the new auditorium. Francis Wilson and Peggy Grahame, both of Upland, will sing the original Shakespearean ballads in featured occasions during the evening.

Mr. Wilson, local tenor, will be guest soloist, singing "Under the Greenwood Tree" and "Blow, Blow; Thou Winter Wind." Among his many local apeparances in the past several years, Mr. Wilson has acted as guest soloist with the Chaffey a cappella choir. Miss Grahame, with Miss Kathleen Beckley, will sing the duet "It Was a Lover and His Lass."

ORCHESTRA'S NUMBERS

Music to suit the mood of the atmosphere will be played by the Chaffey Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Ralph Streano. Mr. Streano has arranged a group of authentic Old English songs and dances to accompany the cast in frolic scenes in the Forest of Arden. Incidental music will include the overture from "Midsummer Night's Dream," and selections from Edward German's "Nell Gwyn Suite," a group of English dances. S. Earle Blakeslee is assisting with songs.

A group of folk dances of Old England have been arranged by Mary Louise Gaylord. Miss Eileen Greear will lead the group of dancers, which include the Misses Harriet Donavan, Estherann Walker, Dorothy Culler, Gwendolyn Detter, Ruth Dobrosky, Ruth Hargrave, Winifred Hodson, Connie Ledig, Donna Murkins, Elaine Shay and Rosemary Myers.

DESIGNS REPRODUCED

Set and scenery designs for the play are exactly as those used by the Stratford Players of England. The first consideration in their arrangement is speed of scene change, with the result that the audience may be assured of no long waits between scenes. This is accomplished by the use of traverse curtains which may be dropped at will.

Conductor (after stumbling over obstacle in the aisle): "Madam, you must not leave your valise in the aisle."

Colored Lady: "Fo' de lan' sakes, dat ain't no valise; dat's mah foot."

Guest Soloist for "As You Like It"

FRANCIS WILSON

widely known tenor, who will be the guest soloist in the Chaffey auditorium tonight in the presentation of "As You Like It." Among the selections he will sing are "Under the Greenwood Tree" and "Blow, Blow; Thou Winter Wind."

"HUCK FINN", "PYGMALION" ON SCREEN BILL HERE

FINAL MEETING OF P.-T. A. IS HELD

Upland Association Enjoys Program and Tea Hour As Last Event

Presiding for the first time since her recent installation, Mrs. T. George Cunning opened the meeting at 2:45, with the usual ceremonies, and Mrs. Owen E. Atwood read an excerpt from the book, "The Prophet", the article concerning children being appropriate because of attention being given to the summer round-up.

Roll call revealed Miss Mamie Porter's first grade room was represented by the largest number of mothers and was awarded possession of the hostess chair.

During the business session Mrs. Hjalmar Anderson, parliamentarian, read the association's bylaws and called attention to the changes that had been made at the request of the national organization.

Mrs. Cunning spoke of the "book shelf", the collection of P.-T. A. books kept for the benefit of the parents, and stated the books will be kept at her home during the summer. She urged the women to read the books whenever they found time.

Mrs. J. B. McCarter served as program chairman and Miss Evelyn Cross presented four ninth grade girls, Neva Johnson, Helena Dunlap, Thelma Lamphear and Ruth Griffith, who sang the well loved song, "Mother".

The tea hour that concluded the meeting was a particularly pleasant event, Mrs. Neal Van Dorin, hospitality chairman, being the hostess. Miss Jessie Brown, principal of the Fannie D. Noe school, presided at the tea table, which was adorned with lavender sweet peas and pink snapdragons from Mrs. Van Dorin's garden.

HOME-COMING DAY TO BE BIG EVENT AT LOCAL CHURCH

Present and Past Members To Meet Sunday at Brethren In Christ Church

For many present and past members of the Brethren in Christ church and Sunday school, Sunday will be a time of special interest, that day being observed as homecoming day.

Notices of the reunion have been sent to more than 200 former members, many of them now residing elsewhere, and preparations are being made to care for a large attendance.

The first homecoming program, following a short Sunday school session, will begin at 10:30 a. m., with the pastor, the Rev. Alvin C. Burkholder, extending a welcome. He also will voice an appreciation of mothers in recognition of Mother's day.

History of the Sunday school and reminiscences of the earlier days of the church and Sunday school will be given by J. B. Leaman, Louis Eyer, Wesley Plum, Enos Leaman and Labon Burkholder. The principal address will be given by the Rev. Samuel Eyer of Corcoran.

BASKET LUNCH

A noon day event that many persons are expected to enjoy will be the basket lunch held in the basement dining hall, where friends and relatives will have an opportunity for pleasant greetings.

During the afternoon session Mrs. Katie Buckwalter of Pasadena will recount the history of the local church up to the time she went to India as a missionary and Bishop J. H. Wagaman will speak on "History of the Last 25 Years."

Various other numbers, including devotions, singing, reminiscences, conferring of special honors and memorial services will be features of the afteroon session.

The regular evening services will be held as usual.

Sea Scouts Event Is Fair Feature

Sea Scout Jamboree, a demonstration of the work of the ships of Sea Scouts of the valley, will be given next Friday evening on the Chaffey athletic field as a part of the fair entertainment. The program will be preceded by a concert given by the Chaffey band.

Thrilling demonstration is promised as the Sea Scouts perform a rescue by means of the breeches buoy. They will also demonstrate, with their six boats and land boat, the ceremonies of their work.

Upland Musicians To Play in Chaffey Band During Fair

One of the attractions of the Chaffey fair on Friday, May 19, will be the 100-piece junior massed band. Twenty band members from Upland junior high school will participate as well as young musicians from Ontario junior high and Fontana. With the third band from Chaffey the total will be nearly 100.

This is the first year such a group of instrumentalists has gathered at the fair and Murray Owen, who organized the band, hopes it will eventually become an annual music festival.

Young Wife: "Bill, I want you to go around to the minister and arrange for having the baby christened."

Bill (shipyard worker): "You mean to say you are going to let somebody hit that little thing over the head with a bottle?"

LEGION AUXILIARY PLANS POPPY DAY

Memorial Poppies To Be Sold On May 27 for Benefit Of Welfare Fund

One thousand bright red poppies, made by disabled World war veterans, have been received by Mrs. W. J. Larkin, poppy chairman for the Upland unit of the American Legion Woman's Auxiliary.

The poppies, memorials to the American soldiers who died on Flanders' fields, will be sold on the streets on May 27, the last Saturday before Memorial day, the money going to the Auxiliary welfare fund.

Mrs. Larkin, assisted by Mrs. I. J. Linkey, Auxiliary president, is planning a poppy tea to be held sometime before the date of the sale, when the members of the unit will assist in putting the stickers on the poppies.

Other preparations for the sale are being made by Mrs. Larkin, who is appointing her assistants, listing the children who will sell the poppies on the downtown streets, and looking after various other details.

POSTER DISPLAY

For a week before poppy sales day the poppy posters made by pupils in the Upland schools in the poster contest recently sponsored by the Auxiliary unit, will be on display in the large windows of the former Harnish store in the Ford building, west of Mac's drug store.

W. C. SCHEU TELLS OF HEATER HISTORY

Leader in Industry Relates Incidents in Citrus Fruit Protection

Pomona. But the biggest year we had was after the 1922 freeze, when total sales amounted to 386,000," he concluded.

"You must have supplied a big proportion of all orchard heaters in the state haven't you, Mr. Scheu?"

"Come on into the office," he offered, "and I'll show you some figures compiled by Floyd Young. Besides the gas from this heater will get too much for you. I'm used to it, so I don't mind."

So the interview was continued in a far more conventional setting, in a suite of offices in the west end of the warehouse—offices modern with Venetian blinds and furnished with spacious desks and leather-covered chairs.

75% SCHEU DESIGNED

Here Mr. Scheu quoted Floyd Young as saying that of the 4,000,000 heaters now in use, 75 per cent were Scheu design. This included some on which Scheu has sold the patents.

"You must have seen some exciting times, Mr. Scheu."

"Yes, I have. In 1937 when the first severe cold night was forecast at noon, that afternoon we had so many long distance calls that parties had to wait half an hour to have calls completed. When we answered that we could not supply one heater, women begged and burst into tears. Now we keep 75,000 heaters in this warehouse and in the one in Ontario.

"In 1922 we rushed 1200 heaters to a widow in San Fernando in the afternoon, and she fired that night. The next night the temperature dropped to 20 degrees. We saved her crop. In 1930 a doctor in Pomona called us at 6 p. m. We hauled heaters to his Alta Loma grove and they were burning at 11 o'clock that night.

SPECIAL TRAIN

"In 1913 I even ran a special train from Wheeling, W. Va., to California in ten days, when ordinary freight would have required three weeks. That was in November, and it was just a case of the train beating the frost. I wanted to ride on that train, but they wouldn't let me."

In fact, being an orchard heater manufacturer is a series of dramatic incidents.

For example, in the fall of 1937, only 25 of the 200 carloads of heaters on order had been shipped by the American Can Co. in the east, where Mr. Scheu has his heaters made, because a sit-down strike was called. So Scheu got busy and found other factories where bowls and covers were made, and a Los Angeles firm manufactured the stacks. Three shifts were set to word to rush through the order. Scheu remembers how he worked all day and at 12 and 1 o'clock at night he was still at the factory pushing along work.

SURPRISE COMPETITORS

"Our competitors said we could not get orders out," said Scheu. But one surmises that with Scheu the greater the challenge the more he enjoys it.

With only 29 per cent of acreage in California equipped with heaters, Scheu considers that there is still work for him to do in the world. He also supplies heaters to deciduous fruit growers all over the country.

Fishing Is Good, Reports Newport

The past week has seen some good catches come in on the Flyer at Newport. Sea bass and barracuda are plentiful now and a few yellowtail are making their appearance among the catches, four coming in one day this week. Live bait tanks are now located in Newport bay, making a good supply of live bait possible at all times. Croakers are being caught in good numbers in the bay, and surf fishing is fair. Some halibut are being landed on the pier, but the most successful fishing seems to be from the live bait boats.

Mrs. L. D. Phillips, Hermosa avenue, has had as her guest for this week her mother, Mrs. M. McCreary of Livermore, Calif. Tonight Mrs. McCreary is to leave by train for an eastern trip which will take her as far as New York. She expects to return to California in about six weeks.

ETIWANDA LOSES ON NEW DIAMOND

Calloway, Hotpoint Twirler, Keeps Reginas Tamed, Winning 5 to 1

Etiwanda has a wonderful baseball diamond and a very fine baseball team, but the batters could not solve the offerings of Cab Calloway, ace Hotpoint twirler in the opening game of the American league Tuesday night. The Hotpoint took the opener 5 to 1.

That loss, however, won't mean much to the ambitious and efficient Etiwanda Reginas, who meet the San Bernardino Merchants tonight on their opponent's field. Hotpoint and San Bernardino Suverkrup's play on the Fourth street park, Ontario, tonight.

Calloway allowed six hits, they being scattered enough to keep himself out of trouble. In the fifth, the Reginas bunched their bingles to threaten but all this effort went for naught.

Ontario Plumbers Win Practice Game

Featured by "Woody" Wallace's two home runs, one with two men on base, the Ontario Plumbers won an exhibition soft ball game from the Signal Oil team of Riverside at the Fourth Street park last night, by a score of 10 to 0.

The first two innings promised to be a good ball game, with both sides getting men on first base, but in the third the Plumbers got to pitcher Hunt of the visitors for two runs and added five more in the fourth, and the game was never in doubt thereafter.

Tonight, at the Exchange park, Campus and California boulevard, the Exchange and Ewart's of Pomona will tangle in an inter-city game. No admission charge is fixed for these games, a silver collection financing the expenses. Ewart's and Maytag, both of Pomona, use the Exchange field as their home grounds this year, and fans should see some fast ball in this league, as there are the two Pomona teams, Exchange and Plumbers of Ontario, and Monrovia comprising the league.

Tonight, also, at the Fourth Street park the General Electric Hotpoints entertain the Suverkrups of San Bernardino in a game that will decide the leadership of the American league, Hotpoint having defeated Etiwanda and Suverkrups the San Bernardino Merchants in the opening games. It should be a great pitcher's battle between Calloway and Grubb, old-time pitching rivals.

ZENZ'S BOWL OVER STRONG OPPONENTS

Caso's Team Scores New Team Record—Frey Is High Man for Week

Zenz's confectionery bowling team continued their fast pace this week in setting back the Richfield Service team by two points, the total team scores being 1248 to 1195. These two teams are among the strongest in the new league.

It took the "dark horse" team of Wilson, Kirkpatrick and Paine, however, to make the highest game score ever recorded on the Upland bowling alley board—498. This trio, playing under the name of Caso's market, defeated Colborn Electric Co. last night. The team score was: Caso's 1254, Colborn's 1194.

Virgil Frey, a pinch hit bowler on the Colborn team, made the highest individual record with a 452 total. Other high scorers were: Pete Hogan, 436; Douglas Allen, 426; Francis Brogan, 424; Fred Kirkpatrick, 419, and Francis Wilson, 412.

An Upland men's bowling team will play Pasadena here tonight. On the local team will be Art Graham, Francis Brogan and Paul Williams.

Police Chief—How is that murder story, Clancy?
